Just 5 minutes walk to the High Street and East Ham station (District Line or Hammersmith & City lines), this family home, spread over 3 storeys, features 3 double bedrooms, a large study that can be used as an additional single bedroom, two family bathrooms, a spacious lounge-diner and full separate kitchen. Combining a high convenience location with generous space, this will be an attractive choice for first time buyers, large families, and families with commuters. On street parking is available from the borough, and the spacious rear garden features a large outbuilding for storage.

Although on a quiet residential road, this home is exceptionally well connected to Greater London. Quick access to the underground puts much of greater London a short train journey away whether you are travelling to work in the City, shopping in Stratford, or going to a show in the West End -- all are within easy reach. Yet there is plenty to do just outside your door on the High Street where you will appreciate the great variety of cafes, restaurants, grocery stores and other shopping options.

For families with school age children, East Ham has excellent choice of excellent junior & senior schools, including Dersingham Primary, Kensington Primary, and Plashet School.
